PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Software Developer Internship

Edfapay | 2024

- I have mastered React and version control systems like Git, and have collaborated with the sales team to gather and analyze user requirements for product development.
- I redesigned the user interface of an existing website using Figma and subsequently implemented the front-end changes.
- I developed five REST APIs from scratch for CRUD operations and successfully integrated them with the front-end.
- I received positive feedback from the sales team and the founder, and then successfully pushed the changes to production.

Host - F1 Premium Hospitality

Saudi MotorSports - Shine | 2024

- As a Host in Formula 1 Premium Hospitality, you'll create memorable experiences for VIP guests, ensuring their comfort and satisfaction during events. You'll manage seating, coordinate with staff, and deliver exceptional service, maintaining the highest standards of hospitality.

Head of Volunteers

Red Sea Film Foundation | 2023

- I conducted interviews, allocated responsibilities, and provided supervision for a team of over 150 volunteers, ensuring smooth and efficient operations.
- "I communicated with various department heads from across the globe, seamlessly coordinating with them and providing effective supervision to ensure smooth operations."

IT Support

Red Sea Film Foundation | 2022

- "Our team of five provided continuous assistance throughout the festival, ensuring smooth operations. With full access, we proactively troubleshooted issues, and for any persistent problems, we coordinated with "Etisalaat" company to ensure timely resolution."
